

Adı-Soyadı:

Öğrenci No:

Bölüm:

İmza:

1-) Science fiction writers in the 1950s ---- that a permanent settlement on Mars ---- a reality by the year 2000.

- a) think / will become
b) were thinking / becomes
c) have thought / is becoming
d) thought / would have become
e) had thought / has become

2-) George and his brother ---- very close, but they ---- each other now for years.

- a) must be / don't see
b) have been / hadn't seen
c) might be / don't see
d) could have been / didn't see
e) used to be / haven't seen

3-) I can't believe that you ate ---- chicken just on your own!

- a) a whole                      b) every                      c) plenty
d) most                      e) either

4-) We were all disappointed that there was no football match last night ---- the terrible weather conditions.

- a) even if                      b) owing to                      c) in spite of
d) as though                      e) when 5-) Experts define a good bed as one that is ---- too hard ---- too soft.

- a) neither/nor                      b) whether/or                      c) such/that
d) both/and                      e) not only/but also

6-) Ibn Khaldun, much of ---- life was devoted to public service and teaching, was a historian, philosopher of history and sociologist.

- a) where                      b) whom                      c) when
d) whose                      e) which

7-) The lecture was ---- interesting ---- the time passed remarkably quickly.

- a) as/as                      b) much/so                      c) very/that
d) more/than                      e) so/that

8-) Why are you trying to do everything by ---- instead of asking for---- help?

- a) yours / someone's                      b) you / the others
c) yourself / others'                      d) your own / another
e) yourselves / anyone

9-) She was so angry that she gave him back her engagement ring; ----, she said that she never wanted to see him again.

- a) moreover                      b) otherwise                      c) even though
d) despite                      e) nevertheless

10-) The film I saw yesterday was about ---- young man's attempt to find ---- meaning of life.

- a) the/—                      b) —/the                      c) a/the

- d) any/a                      e) the/any 11-) I hate working with people who have no sense of ---- because they always turn up late, leave early, and let other people finish their work.

- a) ambition                      b) responsibility                      c) honesty
d) reason                      e) punctuality

12-) Because her skin was extremely ---- to the sun's rays, Julie had to sit in the shade for the most part of her holiday.

- a) sensitive                      b) accustomed                      c) appropriate
d) improper                      e) competent

13-) If the author's book had not been criticized so ---- he probably would not have committed suicide.

- a) efficiently                      b) uselessly                      c) wastefully
d) willingly                      e) harshly

14-) I don't have time to hear every detail, so I'd just like you to ---- the report.

- a) extend                      b) declare                      c) summarise
d) admit                      e) simplify

15-) The teacher asked the students to ---- their homework at the end of the lesson.

- a) bring about                      b) look after                      c) get over
d) give in                      e) set up

16-) "Jack the Ripper" was one of the most famous murderers of all time, and his ---- were all young women in East London.

- a) conquerors                      b) victims                      c) remainders
d) residents                      e) survivors

17-) Because India was formerly a British colony, there is still a British-based system of education there and English is the most ---- spoken second language.

- a) presently                      b) permanently                      c) widely
d) formally                      e) adequately

18-) When there is something big that needs repairing in the house, it is usually more economical to ---- the tools than to buy them, as you may only need them once or twice.

- a) hire                      b) lend                      c) charge
d) purchase                      e) rent

19-) You should have seen the ---- on Sheila's face when she found the frog in her bag. She looked so surprised!

- a) motion                      b) expression                      c) hazard
d) description                      e) scar

20-) To lose weight, you have to ---- sugar and other sweet things.

- a) look forward to                      b) come up with                      c) calm down
d) cut down on                      e) make up

21-23. soruları metne göre cevaplayınız. Answer the questions 21-23 according to the text.

Tennis can be played by two players in singles or by four in doubles. There is a marked-out area, the court, with a long net drawn across the centre. The object of the game is to hit the ball over the net and keep it in play until the opponent loses the point-by failing to make a good return. The opposing players hit a ball to each other with rackets. They concede points to the opponent each time they hit the ball into the net, or place it outside the limits of the court. The game is played on grass, called lawn tennis, or on a hard court. Its origins go back to the sixteenth century, and the modern form of the game dates from 1873. Two of today's most important international tennis championships are Wimbledon and the Davis Cup.

21-) It is clear from the passage that tennis ----.

- a) is better when played on grass than on a hard court
- b) requires rather expensive equipment
- c) is played by either two individual players or two pairs
- d) is generally a sport of the wealthy
- e) has changed little since it originated

22-) The passage tells us that tennis ----.

- a) was first played sometime in the 1500s
- b) was perfected by someone called Davis
- c) was a somewhat informal game until 1873
- d) was played without rules for centuries
- e) is played on extremely hard ground

23-) We understand from the passage that, in tennis, ----.

- a) the rules are not as strict as in other sports
- b) there are no more than two international tournaments
- c) people can be seriously hurt when they are hit with rackets
- d) one player, or pair, wins by the other's mistakes
- e) players have to make a large number of strikes

24-26. soruları metne göre cevaplayınız. / Answer the questions 24-26 according to the text.

If we look at the major medical problems today, they fall fairly clearly into two main groups: the various forms of cancer and the cardiovascular diseases. From a quantitative point of view the latter is by far the more important. Moreover, it robs society of people at the most productive stages of their careers, whereas cancer, by and large, attacks people in the later years of their life.

24-) According to the passage, cancer ----.

- a) is the most major medical problem today
- b) occurs in more forms than cardiovascular disease
- c) has a higher incidence than cardiovascular disease
- d) is a disease more common to old age
- e) does not affect people during their careers

25-) Cardiovascular diseases ----.

- a) make up the most serious group of all modern illnesses
- b) occur more frequently than cancers
- c) have more varieties than cancers
- d) are never found in older people
- e) are not as significant as cancer

26-) The significance of cardiovascular disease, in the writer's opinion, ----.

- a) partly comes from its effect on working life
- b) is not as great as that of cancer
- c) is that it is an incurable disease
- d) stems from the fact that it continues into the later years
- e) is the number of forms in which it occurs

27-29. soruları metne göre cevaplayınız./ Answer the questions 27-29 according to the text.

Getting a Ph.D. Doctor of Philosophy degree, is the highest academic achievement in the United States. Normally, only professors with Ph.Ds are hired by universities. However, the Ph.D is a research degree, not a teaching degree. This means that many professors in American colleges and universities have no idea how to teach. Their lectures are often dull, and they do not know how to communicate with their students. The irony is that while the Ph.D is vital to getting a university job, and that many people spend years to acquire that qualification for this aim, it does not prepare them for the job at all.

27- What is emphasized in the passage is that ----.

- a) the Ph.D is useful for any qualified teacher
- b) the process of getting a Ph.D is rather dull
- c) the Ph. D is the highest degree of the profession of teaching
- d) professors teaching in the USA are not actually trained for the job
- e) educational standards are low in American schools despite their hiring professors for teaching 28-) According to the passage, most people study for a Ph.D ----.

- a) to become researchers at universities rather than teachers
- b) in order to acquire teaching skills
- c) so that they can be hired as teachers by universities
- d) for the express purpose of spending years acquiring a qualification
- e) in order to be able to communicate with a wider range of people 29-) It is implied in the passage that, considering the situation at American universities today, ----.

- a) a Ph.D is useless for practical teaching purposes
- b) it is not worth trying to get employed at a university
- c) university teachers are no more knowledgeable than ordinary college teachers
- d) getting a Ph.D is not as difficult as it would look
- e) anyone with enough time can get a Ph.D

30-34. soruları aşağıdaki metne göre cevaplayınız./Answer the questions 30-34 according to the text.

Recent researches suggest that laughter not only influences our mental framework, but it has a positive effect (30) ---- the physical aspect as well. It (31) ---- for some time that laughter increases the pain resistance level, but the theory is still not proven. (32) ----, very few studies have yet been made about the relation between comedy and health, but those existing seem to (33) ---- that a good joke may lower the blood pressure, improve memory and cognitive functions and boost the immune system. Moreover, these results are not short-term only: it seems that a good sense of humour may protect you against heart diseases and alter your biochemical state to a level (34) ---- the organism produces more antibodies.

30-)

- a) up                      b) in                      c) from
d) down                    e) on 31-)

- a) was accepted            b) has been accepted
c) accepted                d) has accepted
e) had been accepted

32-)

- a) In fact                    b) Unlike                c) While
d) However                e) If 33-)

- a) persist                    b) sophisticate          c) imitate
d) estimate                e) indicate 34-)

- a) what                      b) of which              c) where
d) whose                    e) whom

35-39. sorularda cümleyi uygun şekilde tamamlayan ifadeyi bulunuz./For questions 35-39, choose the best possible option to complete the sentence.

35-) Although many countries allocate a big budget to education, ----.

- a) they improve the standards to a great extent
b) it affects students' personal development a lot
c) unable to provide the necessary technological supply to students
d) they haven't been able to achieve any remarkable success
e) neither has a high educational level

36-) ---- until people realize that public transport is much more efficient than travelling by car.

- a) Traffic problems will continue to get worse
b) Nowadays, people have to sit in traffic jams for hours.
c) In spite of all the new roads, traffic problems have not improved.
d) No one could go anywhere since the traffic was barely moving
e) We're living in an age of car mania

37-) Because of the poor sanitation during the Middle Ages, ----.

- a) many people died from infectious diseases, such as cholera
b) boiling all drinking water is one precaution against the disease
c) some people tried to be clean, but most were very dirty
d) typhoid epidemics are common in developing countries
e) skin diseases have since become much less common 38-) He has lived in China for five years and claims to be fascinated by the country and culture, ----.

- a) which he speaks like a native
b) yet he speaks not a word of the language
c) that he has never lived anywhere else for so long before in his life
d) so he has never made an attempt to learn their history
e) in order to make a thorough study of the language

39-) If it weren't for my brother's great efforts and contribution to our project, ----.

- a) which is of great importance for us to win a scholarship
b) we wouldn't be struggling to complete it in such a short time
c) we owe them a lot for what they did to help us
d) they don't support the organization enthusiastically
e) we would never have had such a good result

40-41. sorularda boş bırakılan yere parçada anlam bütünlüğünü sağlama için getirilecek cümleyi bulunuz./For questions 40-41 choose the best possible option to complete the paragraph given.

40-) Anger, a physical and mental response to a threat or to harm, is one of the most basic human emotions. Anger in itself is a natural human reaction that has allowed humans to evolve and adapt. ---- If not, anger becomes a problem and leads to aggressive behaviour and harms us or other people.

- a) Long-term anger has been linked with mental health problems.
b) The other alternative is to suppress the energy until the next time you're angry.
c) If you are unable to control your anger, you may react in the way you'll regret later on.
d) There may have been problems in the family, at work and with friends.
e) It is not a bad thing in itself when it is managed in the right way.

41-) An overweight person beyond the age of forty, who has a family history of diabetes, falls in the high-risk category for contracting this disease. ----. When both parents are diabetic, however, the risk is even higher, and some authorities believe all such children will be diabetic.

- a) Diabetes may occur in a child under the age often, but most develop it at a later age
b) Diabetes occurs during the lifetime of 4 percent of women and 2 percent of men
c) Diabetes is diagnosed with a glucose-tolerance test
d) A child born to one diabetic parent has a one-in-four chance of becoming diabetic
e) The correct diet is essential for all people with diabetes

42-43. sorularda parçanın anlam bütünlüğünü bozan cümleyi bulunuz./For questions 42-43, choose the irrelevant sentence in the paragraphs.

42-) (I) One of the strangest yet most influential art movements of the early 20th century was called Dadaism. (II) Dadaism arose in 1916 as a protest to the mechanized slaughter of World War I. (III) Historians call World War I the last war to be fought between imperial dynasties. (IV) This movement was directly succeeded by Surrealism. (V) Today we can see its influence in such artistic phenomena as "installation art".

- A) I      B) II      C) III      D) IV      E) V

43-) (I) In the early 1900s, an American engineer named Henry Ford founded a motor manufacturing company in Detroit. (II) Today, Detroit is still known as the centre of motor manufacturing. (III) His aim was to produce a light, last car at the lowest possible price. (IV) Ford realised that to achieve this, his vehicle would have to be produced quickly and in large numbers. (V) Thus, he developed the idea of mass production.

A) I      B) II      C) III      D) IV      E) V

44-45. sorularda karşılık konuşmayı tamamlayan ifadeyi bulunuz./For questions 44-45, choose the best possible option to complete the conversation.

44-)

Customer: Could you take me to the airport?

Taxi Driver: -----

Customer: Oh, whichever you think will take less time, please. I'm in a hurry.

- a) But I must tell you that it's a long way, and it will cost you $20.
- b) Sure, but traffic is terrible at this time of day. You must be prepared for a delay.
- c) I'm sorry, that's out of my service area, Madam.
- d) Are you going to pay in cash or by credit card, Madam?
- e) Would you like me to take the road through the city or the highway?

45-)

Kari: -----

Mark: No, what is it?

Kari: Frank and Maria have got engaged.

Mark: Oh, really! I didn't even know that they were going out.

- a) Do you have any new gossip for me?
- b) Have you heard the latest news?
- c) Has something terrible happened?
- d) Do you know what the source of this rumour is?
- e) Guess what I found in the garden

46-47. sorularda verilen cümleye anlamca en yakın cümleyi bulunuz./For questions 47-48, Choose the best possible option that is closest in meaning to the given sentence.

46-) It was Jack Nicholson's performance that rescued the film from being a complete failure.

- a) The only good thing about the film was Jack Nicholson's performance; otherwise, it was terrible.
- b) The character Jack Nicholson played in the film was a man who failed while trying to rescue people from a disaster.
- c) Even the wonderful performance of Jack Nicholson failed to make the film a success.
- d) It was a great film, which was further enhanced by Jack Nicholson's acting.
- e) Although I knew it was a terrible film, I still went to see Jack Nicholson's performance.

47-) Although home cooking is traditionally done by women, most of the chefs are men.

- a) Cooking is fun for people of all ages whether they are men or women.
- b) Men are more original in their cooking, while women are better at preparing traditional dishes.
- c) Since chefs are too busy cooking for others, at home, their wives have to cook for them.
- d) Cooking in homes is considered women's duty, but the majority of professional cooks are male.
- e) Women must hate cooking due to their traditional role at home, as it is not common to see a famous female chef.

48-50. sorularda duruma uygun düşen ifadeyi bulunuz./ For questions 48-50, choose best option you can say in the situation given.

48-) You try to telephone a friend, but a stranger answers the phone. You ask for your friend, and the person says that he doesn't live there. You realize that you've made a mistake, so you apologize, saying: -----

- a) Well, can I leave a message for him then? He's got my number.
- b) I'm sorry, but I don't believe you. I wonder why he's avoiding me.
- c) I'm sorry for bothering you. I must have dialed the wrong number.
- d) Oh, I didn't know he had moved. Do you know his new number?
- e) Sorry for calling so late. Do you expect him to be in tomorrow?

49-) Someone asks you where the nearest bank is. As you are a stranger as well, you do not want to mislead him and explain him the situation saying: -----

- a) Go straight ahead and take the second turning on the left. You can't miss it.
- b) I am sorry, but I am a newcomer as well. You had better ask someone living here.
- c) It's such a small place, and everything should be at the city centre.
- d) I am a stranger here, but I can ask my friend who knows here very well.
- e) I saw one yesterday somewhere close here. Keep looking around.

50-) You work in an office. You don't have many friends there. You get on well with just one of your colleagues. But she always calls you with strange names. It irritates you a lot; however, since she is your only friend there, you don't want to break her heart. Therefore, you decide to make her know about your disturbance without being rude, so you say: -----

- a) Could you use a different nickname for me? I didn't like the last one.
- b) Is it possible if you could call me with my first name as I couldn't get used to the way you call me?
- c) Isn't it politer to address people with their family names instead of using the first name?
- d) I hate people calling me with odd names. It's complete rudeness.
- e) Does it bother you a lot if I don't use your real name?

