

Instructions for the YDYO speaking exams.

Four students are asked to enter the exam room at the same time. Each student is then asked to choose two question slips that are turned over. They then answer only one of the questions that they prefer. Students are then given about five minutes to think about their chosen question. The exam is completed when each individual student feels confident that he or she has fully answered the question.

Erasmus & Mevlana Exam Questions:

Part A: Testing Academic English

- How would you be a good representative of OMU on the Erasmus programme?
- Do you think our lives have been improved by computer technology? Think of a few examples of how computers have an educational or an entertainment value. Could you do without them?

Part B: Scenario questions- Testing Survival English

- You are at the airport and you want to go to the city centre. Who do you ask for help? What would you say?
- You are in a hotel check in desk. You want a room for two nights. What do you say?

ELT Proficiency Exam Questions

- Why do you think people become teachers?
- There is a proverb that says, "A friend in need is a friend indeed." Do you agree?

Proficiency Exam Questions for Other Faculties

- What are some common situations when people are sometimes dishonest?
- What are some differences between living in the city and living in the country?